 - c. 2000+ people: 14 days

Notice is not needed for smaller, private functions for 100 or fewer people that may often be held on private residences. However, there may be times where a licensee is unclear whether liquor can be sold or supplied on certain premises under the related development consent (e.g. on a business premises). In these instances, the licensee should still notify the local council, or seek clarification from the council about what is permitted.

Written notice to L&GNSW should be made by email to compliance.info@liquorandgaming.nsw.gov.au and should include the following details:

- the address of the premises on which the function is to be held
- the name of the occupier of those premises
- the nature of the function
- the number of persons for whom catering services are to be provided at the function
- the date on which, and the hours during which, the function is to be held.
